NEWS OF OUR MEN and WOMEN IN UNIFORM

Private Evelyn Ciemoli Kennedy, M. C. W. R., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ciemoli, 813 Brunswick street, Daly City, last week, was ordered to report August 18 to Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, for basic training in the Marine Corps Women's Reserve.

A former private secretary for the firm of Johannessen and Girand, Private Kennedy will be sent to a Marine base to free a Marine to fight, or to a specialists' school when she completes her basic training.

An expert typist and stenographer, Private Kennedy won a national typing contest two separate years, as well as several certificates for shorthand proficiency in state contests.

Hally N. Moral, 64 Eastlake avenue, Daly City, is now stationed at the Kearns, Utah, Army Air Forces Basic Training center, it is announced by Colonel Converse R. Lewis, commander.

The husband of Mrs. Henrietta Moral of the same address, he has been in the Army Air Forces since November 11, 1942.

Men at the Utah post are trained under the rigorous program of the Air Forces Technical Training command. They are taught how to fight—how to protect themselves under battle conditions, to march, the use of small arms and machine guns, the use of the gas mask and other kindred subjects before going to duty with ground crews.

Private Raymond J. Welsh jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Welsh, 553 Hanover street, Daly City, has recently reported to Wheaton college, Wheaton, Illinois, for training under the Army Specialized Training program.

He is enrolled in a basic engineering course of approximately 9 months duration and will receive instruction in various academic subjects, physical education, and military theory and drill.

The men stationed in the Wheaton unit have all had basic military training in various camps throughout the country. The full ASTP contingent at Wheaton numbers approximately 250.

Welsh is a graduate of Jefferson Union high school. He was formerly stationed at March field, California.

Private Robert Passafiume and Private Raymond Widowski, both Daly City men, met in Portland, Oregon, recently, much to the pleasant surprise of both. When they fell to talking they learned that they were stationed at the same place—Vancouver, Washington. Passafiume is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Passafiume sr., 667 San Diego avenue, and Widowski is the son of Mrs. Widowski, Eastlake avenue. Private Passafiume also reports meeting another Daly City friend in the Northwest, lately, Seaman First Class Jerry Root.

Leroy Passafiume, now with the Merchant Marine and formerly in the U. S. Navy, reports meeting several Daly City boys in New Caledonia.

Steve Passafiume jr., off on active duty with the Navy's Seabees, has a fine new son, born August 9. The baby and its mother make their homes with the senior Passafiumes at 667 San Diego avenue.

Private William Don Rigler, 21, Daly City, has arrived at Coe college, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, for a course of Army Air Force instruction lasting approximately five months prior to his appointment as an aviation cadet in the Army Air Forces. During this period he will take numerous academic courses, as well as elementary flying training. Upon completion of the course he will be classified as a pilot, navigator, or bombardier and go on to schools of the Flying Training command for training in these specialties.

Rigler is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Rigler, 123 Vista Grande avenue and a graduate of Jefferson Union high school. Before going to Coe college, Rigler took instruction at the Santa Ana Army Air base and at the Lowry field, Colorado, armament school of the Army Air Force, from which he was graduated, July 20, of this year.

Private First Class Vincent E. Barazota, now a radio instructor in the Army Air Force Technical Training command at Sioux Falls, South Dakota, spent a 12-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Barazota, 227 Peoria street, August 4-16.

Barazota, a graduate of Jefferson Union high school, attended Marin junior college and the University of California at Berkeley.

Before entering the services he took training in Radar schools at Los Angeles, New York City, and Philadelphia. He entered the armed forces in New Cumberland, Pennsylvania, and received his basic training at Miami Beach, Florida.

Edward J. Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Allen, 6754 Mission street, has entered an intensive course in war dog training, a Coast Guard field now open to qualifying 17 year olds, the Recruiting office, 118 Custom house in San Francisco, this week, announced.

The local Coast Guardsman, having enlisted at 17, is a splendid example of the opportunities existing in the Coast Guard today for men of this age bracket, the headquarters said.

Completing his basic drill with honors at the Alameda Training station, Allen is undergoing the course of instruction at San Carlos, California, the Army War Dog Reception and Training center.

War dog training, such as Allen has chosen in the nation's "Toughest little Maritime Service" is only one of the many schools on a long list.

Men interested in having "shipmates" like Allen may contact the Recruiting office in San Francisco for complete information, by mail or in person.

Private Aaron Dykman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dykman, 198 Wellington avenue, is now in Alaska, serving with the U. S. Army. He reports that it rains a lot and that he is surrounded by snow-capped mountains. Dykman, formerly a stereotyper at The Record, took his basic training at Camp Roberts.

The Record had a nice letter, this week, from Ralph G. Capps, now in "boot camp" at Farragut, Idaho. Capps, a popular graduate of Jefferson Union high school, has been at the United States Naval Training station in Idaho since June.

He wrote, "Among the things we learn here at 'boot camp' is how to spot ships against sky glare. I think that if the people of Daly City fully realized the necessity for the protection of our ships by total dimout, the air raid wardens wouldn't have any trouble with dimout violators." Capps home address is 345 Winchester street.

Lieutenant Richard F. Millet, a graduate of Jefferson Union high school, is now stationed in England with the U. S. Army Air Corps. He writes of bicycling all over the city of London. During his school days, Millet lived here in Daly City with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Ludvigsen, who now reside in San Francisco. He has been in the armed forces for a year and a half.

Sergeant William E. Schirmer, whose wife, Mrs. Florence E. Schirmer, lives at 1257 Brunswick street in Daly City, is reported missing in action or killed somewhere in the South Pacific.

A list of merchant marine dead released, last week, by the U. S. Navy contained the name of John Henry Gault, Colma. Gault, according to the Navy report, was on a vessel sunk by enemy gun fire. He was an oiler.

Appoint Smith Leader Of Group Entering Services

Only Seven Local Men In Quota On August 11

Leader appointed to head the group of 25 men sent to be inducted by the armed forces from Daly City Draft Board No. 103, last week, was Hugh H. Smith jr., city councilman. He was assisted by Kenneth Cecil Smith.

Only seven of the contingent were local men, the others being from South San Francisco, Brisbane and other communities under the jurisdiction of the local board.

Mrs. Isabelle Flynn, chief clerk, released the following names of men for whom her office had received acceptance papers following last Wednesday's induction: Hugh H. Smith jr., 300 Evergreen avenue, entered U. S. Army; John Klawin, 10 Sullivan street, Colma, U. S. Army; Steve Brosnan, 778 San Diego avenue, U. S. Army; Paul Shelmadine, 560 Hanover street, U. S. Army; Robert Nava, Rainier street, Colma, U. S. Army; Kenneth Cecil Smith, 36 Willits street, U. S. Navy; Louis Macauley, 118 Oliver street, U. S. Army.

The six men going into the Army were given 21-day pre-induction furloughs to wind up their civilian affairs.

High School Will Open September 20

High school students of Daly City will return to classrooms at Jefferson Union, Monday, September 20, according to an announcement made by the school office, this week. This is one week later than pupils at the local grammar schools resume their studies. Principal at Jefferson is James Ferguson.

It's Not Too Late To Get Book Three

If you still don't have War Ration Book No. 3, now's the time to take steps to get it, according to Miss Genevieve Blue, chief clerk at War Price and Rationing Board No. 83-12-3, which serves the Daly City area. The staff, which had been assembled to speed the distribution of Book No. 3, was curtailed when the original deadline was passed, but applications for the book will still be given attention at the local headquarters, 470 Grand avenue, South San Francisco.

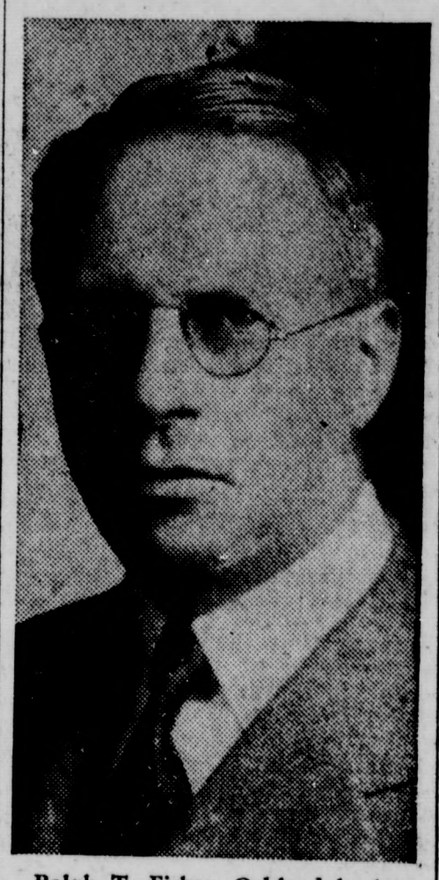
"Remember that all of this detail can be handled by mail," Miss Blue said. "There is no need for any Daly City resident to make a special trip to South San Francisco to secure Book No. 3."

In order to get Book No. 3, the applicant must fill out OPA form R129. This form was sent through the mail to the majority of local residents. In the event that anyone did not receive it, however, or has moved here since the registration was held, he can get the form by writing the local board for it.

In addition to this form, late applicants must fill out OPA form R124 in duplicate. This is merely a supplemental application for Book No. 3 which indicates the reason for lateness on the part of the applicant.

In closing this week's interview, Miss Blue again pointed out that Daly City people can handle a great many details of their rationing business by mail, rather than calling in person at the board office.

HEADS STATE WAR CHEST



Ralph T. Fisher, Oakland business leader, has been elected President of the California War Chest, assisting Community Chest and War Fund organizations throughout the State in planning October and November campaigns to raise their share in the National War Fund's total goal of $125,000,000. Agencies to be benefited, in addition to local community welfare, are USO, United Seamen's Service, War Prisoners' Aid, and 14 United Nations relief organizations.

Offer War Bond For Best Slogan

A war bond for a good snappy campaign slogan!

That's the offer the San Mateo County War Chest leaders made, today, to peninsulans from one end of the county to the other.

In other words, if you can think of a peppy slogan not over 10 words long for the War Chest drive which starts October 18 and it proves to be a winner you will have earned the very best security in the world—a $25 War Bond.

War Chest leaders announced today that the slogan contest opens September 1, and that all entries must not be postmarked la-

Air Raid Wardens, Scavengers To Aid In Mammoth Drive

Saturday Night Is Time To Put Out Collections

Calling all patriotic householders of Daly City to immediate cooperation, R. L. Crane jr., Salvage-For-Victory chairman, announced today that a city-wide pickup of tin cans will be held, Sunday, August 22. The campaign to collect all Daly City's tin cans on that date is made possible by the cooperation of the air raid wardens who will handle the collection and by the services of the Daly City Scavenger company, which will provide hauling facilities. Partners in the company are Fred Simoncini, Ambrose Delfino, G. B. Delfino, and Joe Palmera.

During the winter months the school children collect the salvaged cans for the war effort, but in order to get the large accumulation of tins out of the way of residents who have been saving them this summer, the pickup will be made. Crane advised that the tins, packed in boxes, be placed at the nearest intersection on Saturday night.

For those people who have never been able to grasp that incorrectly prepared tins are worse than worthless, Crane pointed out that no cans not in good condition will be picked up. If there were any way to award a demerit for improperly prepared tins, the salvage committee would do so. In any event, any resident who pays so little attention to the continuous plea for properly prepared tins that he puts out uncleaned and unflattened cans will find them still sitting there after the Sunday pickup.

In case there is any doubt as to how to prepare tins for salvage, Crane explained patiently that tins must be WASHED, have their labels removed, and be flattened.

This will be the only pickup of tin cans for this summer. In the fall, the program will be handled as last year with the schools acting as reception depots.

"Tin is necessary for planes, ships and guns. Help make this Daly City's biggest single contribution to the war effort," the Salvage committee beseeched.

Firemen Extinguish Blaze At Gehringer Beauty Shop, Friday; Put Out Grass Fires

Companies No. 1, 2, and 4 responded to an alarm turned in when a water heater caused a fire at the Gehringer Beauty Shop, 6396 Mission street, Friday, August 13, at 2:47 p. m. Several officers from the local police department also reported to the scene and their routine summary of the event revealed no serious damage.

Mrs. Gertrude Gehringer, proprietor, expressed her appreciation for the prompt response given her request for aid. She attributes the fact that none of her irreparable equipment was damaged to the speedy work of the firemen.

On Sunday afternoon two grass fires called out the firemen. At 2:45 p. m. an alarm was turned in from the box on West Cavour street. A grass fire in a lot next to 4 West Cavour had spread to the fence at that address and begun to blister the paint on the house. Companies No. 1, 2, and 6 extinguished the blaze. At 4:08 p. m. Companies No. 1 and 4 were sent to extinguish a grass fire near Bellevue avenue and Lowell street.

Hold Funeral Services For Irving Reid Daly

Funeral services for Irving Reid Daly, son of the John D. Daly for whom this community was named, were held, Monday morning, August 16, in San Francisco. He died, August 13, in that city, at the age of 64.

Daly, who was secretary-treasurer of the Borden's Dairy Delivery company, spent his early days on his father's ranch here in Daly City, where he took an active part in his father's dairy business. During the 1906 earthquake and fire he was instrumental in getting milk to the refugees. He was one of the directors of the original Daly City Bank. His hobbies were golf and charity.

His last appearance in Daly City was upon the occasion of the dedication of Marchbank park in June, 1941. At that time he made an address and participated in the ceremonies.

Columbia Comedy Opens Tonight At D. C. Theatre

Co-starring Jean Arthur, Joel McCrea and Charles Coburn, George Stevens' "The More the Merrier," a Columbia picture opens at the Daly City theatre, tonight, and advance reports all seem to indicate that here is 1943's NEW kind of romantic comedy! The three leading players have time and again proven their ability to please even the most critical of movie-goers and producer-director George Stevens has supplied cinema fans with some of Hollywood's top hits in recent years.

It's all about a beautiful Washington secretary who decides to do her share toward relieving the housing shortage in the nation's capital by renting her spare room. Determined to permit only a woman to share her small apartment, Jean Arthur, as the secretary, finally gives in to Charles Coburn's persuasive arguments and permits him to rent the room—for only one week!

Afraid that things won't work out, Jean's worst fears are realized when Coburn promptly sublets half of his room to Joel McCrea, an engineer in Washington on business. Thus forced to share her kitchen and bath with two strange men, Jean goes through a madcap series of hectic and hilarious moments.

All the time that this is going on, Jean is engaged to a minor executive in one of the government bureaus. Her fiance's only claim to fame happens to be that he once had dinner at the White House, but Jean seems to think that this, plus his salary of $8600 per year, is plenty in spite of Coburn's demands that she ditch her future husband for McCrea, a much younger and more romantic guy.

The hilarious climax is reached when the F. B. I. steps into the picture after McCrea has been spotted looking out one of the windows with his binoculars. Their investigation naturally results in a deluge of publicity and Jean's predicament is soon made clear to her fiance, although he stubbornly doubts her patriotic motives. Coburn then steps in and straightens matters out to the satisfaction of all concerned in a way that seems certain to put the old love light in your eyes and a tender glow in your heart.

In addition to the three principals, "The More the Merrier" also includes such talented veterans as Richard Gaines, Bruce Bennett, Frank Sully, Clyde Fillmore, Stanley Clements and Don Douglas in its star-studded cast.

Hollywood is unanimously saying that never before has one picture contained such delicate charm, such tender amusing love scenes, such rocking laughter and such complete timeliness.

Current Attraction At The Daly City

The fun began when Connie Milligan (portrayed by Jean Arthur above) placed a want ad in the newspaper, offering as a patriotic gesture to share her apartment. The results were terrific as this weekend's patrons at the Daly City theatre will learn when they see "The More the Merrier."

South Sea Isle Of Tahiti Inspiration For Number In Glamorous Ice Follies

For the first time a truly authentic dance of the glamorous and fabled South Sea isle of Tahiti has been translated to skating and is interpreted by Beautiful Bess Ehrhardt, as a featured presentation in the Ice Follies of 1943 now showing for a limited engagement at Winterland in San Francisco.

Miss Ehrhardt's appearance in the San Francisco engagement marks her return to the ice after a year's absence spent in her home in nearby Hillsborough.

During her sabbatical leave from the Ice Follies, Miss Ehrhardt made an intensive research into the native dance lore of the Tahitians and the result is an authentic dance translated to skates in the best and inimitable Ehrhardt manner.

Assisted by a bevy of beautiful Folliettes attired in startling and dazzling costumes, Miss Ehrhardt cavorts through a myriad of intricate routines climaxed in a rousing finish that reaffirms her nationally known reputation as "America's Sweetheart of the ice."

Bess Ehrhardt in private life the wife of Roy Shipstad, star and co-producer of the Ice Follies, is a native of Superior, Wisconsin. She has been associated with the Ice Follies since the founding of the company seven years ago. She began as a chorus member, progressed rapidly into the ranks of the featured performers, and rose to stardom to become one of the great favorites of the big ice palaces of the nation.

As a special convenience, so that patrons may fully avail themselves of transportation and other facilities operating under wartime schedule, the nightly performances commence at 8 p. m. instead of 8:30 p. m. as in other years.

Scouts, Cubs Aid With Playfield

Cubs and Scouts of Group 141, under the direction of Scoutmaster Joseph Straughan, have now completed the fence and much of the playfield at Grace Church of the Nazarene, Vista Grande and Santa Barbara avenues. Still under construction are a drinking fountain and barbecue pit. Concrete walks have been put in.

Cost of the improvement has been met by the Scouts and Cubs themselves who raised more than $100 to accomplish the building of the playfield.

The Scout Victory gardens have yielded handsome returns, this season, according to Straughan.

ISOLATING ISOLATIONISM

A recent Gallup poll indicates that 78 per cent of voters favor "the general principle of participating in world affairs," as preferable to "a general policy of isolationism such as we followed after the last war."

This reveals a growing realization that our democratic way of life cannot continue to exist in a vacuum of isolation. Modern invention, annihilating time and space, plus the common struggle to survive against the tyranny of Axis nations, has brought us into such close relationship with other peoples, that aloofness in the post-war world will be virtually impossible.

A departure from the pre-war isolationism will mean cooperation with—not merely contributions to—other nations. Cooperation simply means joint action among nations for the common good of all. Concessions will have to be made, but these should be counterbalanced among nations. Our representatives at world conferences need not be "starry-eyed theorists who want to give everything away" nor so-called "realists" who attach suspicion to every move or suggestion of a foreign government.

Undoubtedly, life would seem simpler if we could live to ourselves. Working out world post-war problems along with other nations will prove very trying at times. Differences will arise. Patience, courage and genuine statesmanship will be needed. But if we are to have a better world, we must help make it so. Staying out of the international arena is not in itself a means of assuring us peace and security.

"Win the war to win the peace." This slogan will have meaning only as we share in world cooperation.

NEW OPA MANAGER

"The less rationing we have to do, the better." So declared Chester Bowles, newly appointed general manager of the national OPA.

This will come as good news to the public and business men alike. Bowles' statement and his attitude toward his new assignment give rise to the hope that he will be able to inaugurate a realistic policy of rationing and price control, in place of the often-confused and impracticable regulations which have governed in the past.

His work is cut out for him. Many changes are needed if our food industry from producer to retailer is to carry on adequately the job of supplying the home front. For instance, ceiling prices have been established at retail and wholesale levels without due regard for raw material and wage costs back of them which had no ceilings. Then, too, margins prescribed by OPA are lower in many cases than ever existed, and are not sufficient to enable retailers to pay all necessary costs and to continue in business. These factors, together with the harassment of unnecessary and burdensome reports, records and accounting, have caused many retailers to go out of business.

This has caused impairment of the food distribution system. It has also encouraged the operations of the black market, which in turn, further obstructs the normal flow of food in the proper channels, creating greater scarcity of supplies.

We realize that Bowles does not have an easy task before him, but if he can weed out some of the bumper crop of bewildering directives, orders and regulations he will do the country a real service.

THIRD WAR LOAN DRIVE

Get ready, folks! Uncle Sam soon will be around again with another—and bigger—war loan drive. September 9 is the date it starts and it will surpass all other such financing in world history.

But Uncle Sam is confident that the $15 billion goal will be reached with some to spare. And he has reason to think so. Last December he requested $9 billion. Did he get it? Yes—and $4 billion besides. Then in April he asked for $13 billion. Presto! In poured $18½ billion.

This drive will be different, however, in that all of the money must come from sources other than banks. This means that Mr. Average Citizen will be expected to buy more heavily than before. But Americans are like that. Give them a higher goal than the last one and they'll make it every time. Voluntary workers will call at every door emphasizing that "a major consideration is increasing the number of people who are buying war bonds."

And they're going to get plenty of help from businessmen, many of whom are organizing their own campaigns. For instance, the Bank of America is already under way with a program to sell $300 million in War Bonds to individuals by the end of next January—a program that has brought speedy commendation from the Treasury Department. In spite of increased war-time demands and help shortage, this bank has enlisted every one of the more than 10,000 employees in the drive, and has stepped up its advertising to convince the public of the vital need for larger individual bond purchases. This is the spirit that will characterize the Third Loan Drive—and that's why it's going to be successful.

So, be ready! Put America "over the top" and we'll keep on top of the Axis.

WAR TRAINING

Training business and professional men for executive positions in war industries, the Stanford University War Training office, through the Graduate School of Business at Stanford, opens its third free course in "Management Practices in War Industries," October 11.

The intensive full time course will run for 10 weeks on the Stanford campus. It is given as part of the university's Engineering, Science, and Management War Training program.

The course is designed both to train men now employed in executive positions in non-essential industries for war industries, and to train potential executives now employed in war work. The fields of industrial management, personnel work, and cost accounting are especially emphasized.

The classes are under the direct supervision of Dean J. Hugh Jackson of the Graduate School of Business, who will consult with trainees about their individual problems and programs. Five of the ranking professors of the school will teach them.

Applicants must be high school graduates with at least five years of business experience, or have equivalent training. Application forms can be secured from the Graduate School of Business at Stanford.

More than 40 older business men were enrolled in the first management course last spring, and some 25 women are enrolled in the course being given this summer. No guarantee of placement is made, but the school continually receives requests for persons with management training, according to Dean Jackson, and the school's placement facilities are open to the students.

Advance Season Sale For San Francisco Opera Association Events Hit New High

Music records for San Francisco give promise of setting an all time "high" this coming season, judging from the advance season sale of the attractions of the San Francisco Opera association, according to a statement of this organization.

The opera association is offering two series of eight events each, both in the opera house. One is a series of Sunday matinees and the other is a series of evening attractions.

Both series feature something this year never before offered concert patrons and that is one complete performance of the regular opera season. The opera to be offered in each series has not yet been announced.

No statement has yet been made as to when the season ticket sale will close and single performance tickets made available. Until that time, however, season ticket purchasers can save up to thirty per cent and season tickets may now be purchased at the opera box office, Sherman, Clay and company, EXbrook 8585.

The Sunday matinee attractions are as follows:

Metropolitan Opera quartet, Ballet Russe, Yehudi Menuhin, Busch and Serkin, Baccaloni Opera company, Lawrence Tibbett, Helen Traubel and a complete performance from the regular opera season of the San Francisco Opera company.

The evening attractions are:

Marjorie Lawrence, Ballet Russe, Dorothy Maynor, Jascha Heifetz, Richard Crooks, Robert Casadesus, Baccaloni Opera company and a complete performance from the regular opera season of San Francisco Opera company.

Army Goes Back To Foot Of Class

When R. L. Crane jr. reported on last week's activities he had a very smug smile on his face—the Army had gone down to defeat again! Last Tuesday, the non-commissioned officers from the Daly City area were beaten by the All-Stars and on Friday night the lieutenants bowed to the superior form of Conci's Shell Service.

Tomorrow evening, August 20, the officers will have an opportunity to avenge their most recent defeat, when they play Conci's at Lincoln bowl.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

IT TAKES a certain amount of courage for a book reviewer to turn to writing books. It's always harder to be in the position of one who receives criticism than one who doles it out. One man who does a very successful job on both sides of the literary fence is John Selby. Every week day for the past ten years, John Selby has written a column about somebody else's books. He's also found time to write three novels of his own, the most recent of which is "Starbuck," the story of Brant Starbuck who was both a musician of genius and a normal, healthy, fun-loving youth.

JOHN SELBY

The time of this story is before and during the First World War. The scene shifts from the Middle West (which Mr. Selby knows well, since he was brought up there) to New York, to Germany where the hero studies and has his debut, back to the United States. Brant is a prodigy at thirteen. Because of the wisdom of his guardians, who don't wish to see him subject to the quick rise and fall of most child prodigies, he is withheld from the concert stage until he is nineteen. His success is instantaneous, and in the next few years he becomes phenomenally famous and wealthy. All of which he accepts without losing his innate integrity.

Then, because he does not want to be considered something apart from other men, Brant enlists in the Navy at the outbreak of our war with Germany. Indirectly, his enlistment leads to an accident to his hand which makes it impossible for him to play the piano again. To the average person, this would mean only tragedy. But Brant is made of sterner stuff. Turning his talents to conducting, he is able to carve a new career for himself.

In "Circuit to Conquest" Relman Morin tells the story of the Japanese lieutenant in Indo-China who discovered among the effects of a French hotel manager a book of figures. The Frenchman explained that he had once been a civil engineer, and this was a set of logarithmic tables. The lieutenant called in a Japanese naval officer, who confirmed what the Frenchman had said. Yes, the figures were logarithms. But the lieutenant, suspicious to the last, confiscated the book. Possibly the book was a secret code, disguised as a mathematical table. He would work out each logarithm and see for himself. As far as Mr. Morin knows, he is working on them still.

The Book-of-the-Month Club selection for September is a novel, "So Little Time," by John P. Marquand. Included in this book is a satiric portrayal of a famous war correspondent—or rather, several correspondents rolled into one. Incidentally, Marquand relates that a few months ago he was in a New York night club when one well-known correspondent was present. Everyone was thrilled to see him there, and finally someone ventured to ask him what he thought of the situation in North Africa. There was a long pause while the great one weighed his words. "In my opinion," he answered finally, "anything can happen in North Africa."

SCIENCE FORUM

EXECUTIVE ENGINEER
GENERAL ELECTRIC RESEARCH LABORATORY

Q. Why is it safe to leave a patient's eyes uncovered while under ultraviolet ray treatment?

A. It depends upon the wavelength of the ultraviolet rays that are used. The best sunlamps give only the longer ultraviolet waves, which are just a little too short to be visible. These are not harmful to the eyes. However, other kinds, especially those which use electric arcs without filters, give shorter rays which are harmful; and, when they are used, it is necessary to protect the eyes by wearing goggles.

Q. What is the principle of the sodium vapor lamp for highway lighting?

A. Essentially a sodium vapor lamp consists of an evacuated glass bulb into which a small amount of sodium has been distilled, and a low pressure of a conducting gas like neon has been introduced. An electrical discharge through the gas vaporizes the sodium and causes it to glow with the typical orange-yellow color which is characteristic of that element.

Q. How long would the sun's rays continue coming to the earth if they were cut off today?

A. The light from the sun takes about 8¼ minutes to get to the earth, so that if the sun should suddenly go out we would keep on seeing it for that length of time. The sun is the nearest of all the stars and its distance is about 92,900,000 miles. Light travels about 186,000 miles a second; therefore, it takes light a little more than 8 minutes to cross the gap.

Q. Could people live for a long time entirely upon vitamin pills and water?

A. It is mainly a question of what our bodies have become accustomed to. The essential food elements could be highly concentrated, and sometimes they are for emergency rations for soldiers and others. But our digestive systems will not function properly unless there is a certain amount of bulk to the food that goes through them. The material that gives this bulk is called "roughage" and consists largely of carbohydrates.

FACTS ABOUT TIN

About 90 per cent of America's normal tin supply was cut off when Japan took over Malaya, Dutch East Indies, Singapore, and other South Pacific areas.

One-sixth of the nation's tin cans are salvaged in the West, Southwest, and Mountain states where many of the cans are used for the precipitation of copper from mine waters.

New Babies

Four local couples are celebrating the arrival of new babies: Mr. and Mrs. Milton L. Alcione, 35 Willits street, have a daughter born, August 11, in San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Gillis, Daly City, a daughter, August 6; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Mahood, Daly City, a daughter, August 8; Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Woods, Daly City, a son, August 6.

Senior Air Raid Wardens To Help With Tin Drive

Will Map Plans At August 20 Meeting

Main topic of discussion at tomorrow night's meeting of Daly City's Senior Air Raid Wardens will be the Sunday tin salvage program. The wardens have pledged their assistance to R. L. Crane jr., local Salvage for Victory chairman and they are now working out details of their Sunday schedule. They appeal to householders to place the properly prepared tins at the street intersection nearest their homes on Saturday night, August 21.

Harry Melicker, chief air raid warden, asked that all senior wardens make a special effort to attend the August 20 meeting, beginning at 8 p. m. at the city hall, 75 Wellington avenue.

The senior wardens are soon to distribute an information form on war gases to all local residents. Some sectors have already received these posters.

Quoted from a letter...

"My conscience hurts me today.

"When I was washing up before getting off the train this morning, I learned that six sailors and three soldiers had sat up all night. These men were making this trip under orders—yet there was no sleeping space available for them.

"When I think of the effort you of Southern Pacific, along with other railroads, are making to care for our service men—and then remember that I obtained a berth that should have gone to a service man—it humiliates me. I was due back for a War Bond meeting today and at the time it seemed important. But compared with taking accommodations away from soldiers and sailors my presence here was highly unessential.

"It has been a good lesson for me. Hereafter I shall travel only when I know I'm not depriving service men of sleeping space . . ."

How's YOUR conscience today?

The letter quoted here came from a western newspaper editor and publisher. This man has a conscience that can't be lulled to sleep by easy self-reassurances.

We hope many other prospective travelers will listen to the "still small voice" of their conscience when it asks questions like these:

How much business and how much pleasure are involved in the train trip I plan? Is it really important for me to visit those relatives back East this war year? Couldn't I get just as much rest and relaxation a little closer to home?

Today the railroad is hard-pressed to find space for essential travelers: People whose trip must be made to keep business and war production going . . . Service men on well-deserved furloughs, possibly the last before combat duty . . . Parents going to visit their son when the latter can't get away from his post. When people travel for pleasure, or other non-essential reasons, they prevent such deserving travelers from getting on the train. Yes, we sincerely mean it when we say: "Don't take the train unless your trip is really NECESSARY."

Plan Gigantic Meeting To Honor Russian Delegation

Event Will Be Held At Civic Auditorium

Plans for a gigantic reception and mass meeting welcoming to San Francisco an official delegation from Soviet Russia, now on a goodwill tour throughout the country, was announced today.

The meeting which will take place Tuesday evening, August 31, in the San Francisco auditorium, is sponsored by a complete cross section of California's most prominent citizenry; when fully underway nearly 100 organizations, representing every phase of civic effort to win the war, will be participating in the plans for the meeting.

The delegation comprises two of Russia's most prominent citizens, Professor Solomon Michoels, foremost artist of the Soviet Union, wearer of the Order of Lenin, founder, director and star of the Moscow Jewish Art theatre, world-renowned authority on Shakespeare — and Lieutenant-Colonel Itzik Feffer, Russia's heroic soldier-poet.

When the delegation arrived in New York early last month Madison Square garden proved totally inadequate; no less than 47,000 people jammed the polo grounds to hear them. A national reception committee, headed by Professor Albert Einstein and including Mayor La Guardia of New York, welcomed them.

Huge mass meetings have greeted them wherever they spoke in Massachusettes and again in Michigan, the governors of these respective states acted as chairmen.

Purpose of the visit is to cement more firmly the friendly relations between Russia and America and thus contribute immeasurably toward winning the war. This is the first time Russia has acted officially in sending two outstanding citizens to speak to the general citizenry of America on the common aims of the two people to crush fascism.

Offices of the reception committee arranging the meeting have been established at 251 Kearny street. Sol Silverman is chairman. All principal Bay area and Northern California Communities are represented on the executive and advisory committees.

ABOUT TIN

The bulk of tin cans salvaged is used for tin reclamation and steel production—1 per cent tin and 99 per cent steel scrap.

Tin is necessary for planes, ships, and guns. Save tin cans.

Tin is used for electrical, telephone, and radio equipment.

Present Special Services Here

Evangelists Reverend Ruth W. Grizzelle and Miss Neva Cook are currently presenting a series of special services at Grace Church of the Nazarene, Vista Grande and Santa Barbara avenues. Reverend D. C. McKisson, pastor, invites the public to attend these interesting musical programs and brief sermons. They are held each evening at 7:45, except Saturday. The evangelists will be at the local church until August 29.

DALY CITY FARALLONE PACKERS WIN

Coming back from a defeat the week previous, Daly City's Farallone Packer Juniors, last Sunday, handed a 9-1 beating to the St. Phillips squad. The game was played on the local diamond, with Manager Louis Marioni's little Packers driving out 17 against three for the visitors. Battery for the Farallones was Quinones and Clark, and for St. Phillips, Creighton, Mantna and Riordian.

Fans at the afternoon contest saw the Surf Riders trounce the Moffat Mantecas by a score of 10 to 3. It was a practice game for the Moffats, members of the Peninsula Summer Baseball league. With the league season officially closed and only the playoffs remaining, schedules for this series will be arranged at a meeting of team managers, August 23.

Next Sunday, at Marchbank park, a return match has been arranged for the morning game, when the Packer Juniors again will meet the Royal Tallows, who handed out a 6-5 spanking two weeks ago. At 2:30 p. m., the Farallone Packers are matched against the Floating Drydock squad of Tiburon.

University To Aid Men To Prepare For War Industries

Day And Evening Courses Are Offered

Men in the Selective Service "critical occupations" list who have a high school education will be given every possible help by the University of California War Training office in Berkeley in preparing themselves for war industry employment, says Dean Morrough P. O'Brien, in charge of this statewide activity.

Free short full-time courses in engineering drawing, aircraft drafting and chemistry laboratory technique will be available for men with a technical background who want to convert their abilities as quickly as possible to take posts in engineering departments in shipyards and aircraft factories or war industry laboratories.

Evening courses in such subjects as industrial accounting, freight traffic management, safety engineering and other timely subjects will help others adjust themselves to their new environment.

Information regarding the unicersity's program may be obtained from the War Training office at 22 Second street in San Francisco or by phoning EXbrook 5377.

EAGLES TO BE HOST AT CLUB FOR SERVICEMEN

Hosts at the Daly City Servicemen's club, next week, will be members of Colma Vista Grande Aerie No. 1848, F. O. E. They play a "big week," topped off with a social for Saturday night, August 28. The boys will enjoy refreshments, music, and the usual hospitality of the center.

Currently taking charge at the club are members of St. Michael's Ladies Aid society.

Mrs. Anne Eason, representing the committee for the club, reports that the large attendance of servicemen continues, with especially big crowds on Saturday nights.

A donation to the center was made, recently, by the Ladies Home club.

Every Jar You Put Up is a Jar to the Axis

This summer, Home Canning counts more than ever. So don't waste an ounce. Be sure the food you can is fresh. Stale or over-ripe food will not can successfully. Produce sold by Safeway is rushed direct from farms to you and is guaranteed to be farm fresh. Take advantage of the low prices now when crops are plentiful. Start canning today.

Scheduled for Fall canning

There's still time to fill those cupboards with home canned foods for enjoyment next winter. Scheduled for fall canning are all those tomato products, pickles, relishes, and sauces which give winter menus a lift. The equipment you need for putting up these products is no more than a preserving kettle or any other large kettle, and a few gadgets that you use every day. So get ready for fall canning.

CANNED WHOLE TOMATOES

Select firm, ripe, medium-sized tomatoes. Scald in boiling water for 1 minute. Plunge in cold water 1 minute. Peel, core and pack in hot sterilized fruit jars. Fill jars with boiling hot water or tomato juice to within ½ inch of top for quarts and ¼ inch for pints; seal jars. Process in water bath for 45 minutes; or in pressure cooker 15 minutes at 5 pounds pressure.

TOMATO HOT SAUCE

- 12 lbs. ripe tomatoes
- 1 lb. onions
- 1 tbsp. whole allspice
- 1 tbsp. celery seed
- 2 tsps. whole white pepper

Wash, core, and quarter tomatoes. Peel onions and cut in wedges. Combine tomatoes, onions and spices tied in a bag in large preserving kettle. Cook until tomatoes are soft and slightly thickened. Remove spice bag. Cool and sieve tomato mixture into large sauce pan. Cook until thickened, about 20 minutes, stirring frequently. Pour into hot sterilized fruit jars; seal at once. Makes 4 qts.

HOT DOG RELISH

- 3½ lbs. sweet red peppers
- 3 lbs. green peppers
- 3 lbs. onions
- 4 cups vinegar
- ½ cup sugar
- 1 tsp. mustard seed
- 1 tbsp. dry mustard
- 1 tbsp. celery seed
- 2 tbsps. salt

Wash peppers; remove seed cores. Peel onions. Put vegetables through food chopper, using coarse knife. Place in large preserving kettle; cover with boiling water and let stand 5 minutes; drain thoroughly. Add vinegar, sugar, spices, and salt; cook until vegetables are tender, about 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Pour into hot sterilized fruit jars, filling to top; seal at once. Makes 6 pts.

Delicious Ice Cream Now Made With Light Cream

The children and big folks of America are going to have their ice cream this summer!

This seems like an amazing statement in the face of war shortages, limitations of ice cream manufacture, lack of heavy cream and many of the ingredients that we have always been accustomed to for making ice cream.

One of the reasons that we are winning the war in this country is our resourcefulness, and American women are just as resourceful as their men.

No apologies need be made for this war-time ice cream. It has texture. It has flavor. It's delightful to eat, and mark these words . . . it contains little butterfat, mother, so maybe it will be less fattening. You can make this ice cream quickly, easily and economically in your automatic refrigerator. The secret of it is to use rennet tablets and make the ice cream first into a rennet custard before freezing. This ice cream uses no eggs, requires no cooking, but the rennet custard seems to cause it to freeze to a smoothness and delicacy which is most delicious.

Here are two recipes — both for your automatic refrigerator. The first is for ice cream; the second for a milk sherbet. You will find them both delicious.

Vanilla Rennet-Custard Ice Cream
(Automatic Refrigerator)

1 rennet tablet
2 cups light cream
½ cup sugar
1¼ teaspoons vanilla

1. Dissolve 1 rennet tablet by crushing in 1 tablespoon cold water.

2. Mix 2 cups light cream, ½ cup sugar and 1¼ teaspoons vanilla. Warm slowly, stirring constantly. When COMFORTABLY WARM, (110° F.) not hot, remove at once from heat.

3. Add dissolved rennet tablet and stir quickly for a few seconds only. Pour at once, while still liquid, into refrigerator tray. Do not move until firm — about 10 minutes, then cool in refrigerator about ½ hour.

4. Place in freezing compartment. Freeze until firm. Remove from tray to a bowl, break up with a fork and beat with electric or rotary beater until free from hard lumps but still a thick mush. Finish freezing. Top each dish with a few nut meats before serving.

Lemon Sherbet
(Automatic Refrigerator)

1 rennet tablet
1 tablespoon cold water
2 cups whole milk (not canned)
½ cup sugar
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
Few drops yellow food coloring
2 tablespoons lemon juice

1. Dissolve rennet tablet by crushing in 1 tablespoon cold water.

2. Mix milk, sugar, grated lemon rind, and food coloring. Warm slowly, stirring constantly. When COMFORTABLY WARM, (110° F.) not hot, remove at once from heat.

3. Add dissolved tablet and stir quickly for a few seconds only. Pour at once, while still liquid, into refrigerator tray. Do not move until firm — about 10 minutes.

4. Freeze until firm. Remove from tray to a bowl, break up with a fork, beat with an electric or rotary beater until free from hard lumps but still a thick mush. Add lemon juice, beat quickly into mixture. Finish freezing.

COURT ST. MARY

Tonight, August 19, Court St. Mary No. 1155, Catholic Daughters of America, is having a joint celebration. First, they are honoring the district deputy who has served the court for two years, and this will be their way of saying that the two years have been enjoyed by all. Mrs. Murphy, who has been deputy, will end her term in the month of September.

Court St. Mary will also celebrate its thirteenth birthday, and a grand party is being planned by Mrs. Virginia Rengstorff, and Mrs. Katherine Salisbury, joint chairmen, for this evening. All members of Court St. Mary are to come in costume and enjoy this grand celebration, the officers said.

Ladies Home Club Issues Invitation

Committee in charge of the whist to be given by the Ladies Home club, Tuesday, August 24, includes Mrs. May, Mrs. Schumacker, and Mrs. Smith, according to Mrs. Edward Mooney, president of the organization. The party will be held at 2 p. m. in the Werner Avenue clubhouse.

The public is invited to attend and there will be a nice selection of prizes, including a cash first. Refreshments will be served at the close of the game.

This may be the only water you'll dive into this summer!

Your Gas Water Heater has a BIG JOB to do —take care of it

Vacations are certain to be curtailed items this summer. There will be added garden and housework to attend to and water sports may be restricted to the bathtub, shower and washing machine.

Which raises this question: "When was the last time you gave your faithful, dependable, hard-working water heater some personal attention and care?"

Summer is the time to attend to your water heater because summer is the time when your household demands its greatest use of hot water. And here is what to do: 1. Drain your water heater tank of sediment. 2. Brush the burner clean and clear of dust and dirt. 3. Touch up exposed flue and connections with paint or oil to prevent corrosion. 4. If special trouble develops call in a service man for a check-up.

Gas and Electricity are Vital in War Production even though they are not rationed and are cheap to use—do not waste them!

Whist To Benefit Daly City Church

Tomorrow evening, August 20, Masonic hall, 17 Hillcrest drive, will be the scene of a benefit whist for Our Lady of Perpetual Help church. The party will start at 8:30 p. m. and the public is urged to attend.

The committee in charge announce a cash first and other valuable prizes.

This is the first whist given for the benefit of the local church in several months.

Peninsula Police Officers Set Date

Saturday, September 25, is the date chosen for the fifteenth annual ball, sponsored by the Peninsula Police Officers association. The event, which is a benefit given for the Widow's and Orphan's fund of the association, will be held in the auditorium of the Peninsula Beach Roller rink in San Mateo.

As in past years, enthusiasm is running high, for this ball is always one of the outstanding social events of the year. Tickets went on sale all over San Mateo county, Sunday, August 15, and from early reports, this year's ball will be bigger, better and more gala than ever before.

Committees have been appointed for music, entertainment, refreshments, and all the other details necessary to the production of a successful event of this kind, and further details will be announced in the very near future.

"Date Conscious"? You'd Better Be - -

Here is a list of those ration dates, which make calendar-watchers of all local housewives, motorists, or, in fact, anyone who wishes to eat, drive his car, or buy an occasional pair of shoes.

June 16—stamp 18 in War Ration Book One became valid for purchase of one pair of shoes.
August 1—blue stamps R, S, and T became valid. Good for purchase of processed foods through September 20.
August 1—red stamps U became valid; good through August 31.
August 8—red stamps V became valid, good through August 31.
August 15—red stamps W became valid; good through August 31.
August 16—stamp 14 in War Book One, good for 5 pounds of sugar, became valid; good through October.
August 31—red stamps T, U, V, and W expire.
August 31—deadline for inspection of tires, C book holders.
September 20—blue stamps R, S, and T expire.
September 21—last day to use "A" book coupons No. 7 for 4 gallons of gasoline.
September 30—tire inspection deadline for A book holders.
October 31—last date to use stamps Nos. 15 and 16 in Book One, each good for 5 pounds of canning sugar.
October 31—shoe stamp 18 (in War Ration Book One) expires.
October 31—tire inspection deadline for B book holders.

Coffee has left the ration list altogether, so civilians may now face the rest of the ration news each morning with at least two cups of coffee between themselves and the hard world of reality.

Publication Carries Story On Sundermann

A recent issue of The California Milk News carried an interesting article on Henry Sundermann sr., 10 Guadalupe avenue, former city councilman. It outlined his long career with Borden's Dairy Delivery company and told of his early days in San Francisco when he was a milkman in the Barbary Coast and Chinatown districts of San Francisco.

Sundermann is now credit manager in the Borden's Burlingame branch.

Mrs. William Rolley Travels To Mississippi

Army medical training group.

Hold Funeral Services For Mrs. Helen Toyne

Funeral services were held, Monday morning, August 16, for Mrs. Helen Toyne, former Daly City resident, at the W. C. Lasswell and company chapel. Mrs. Toyne, who is survived by her husband, Frank E. Toyne, passed away, August 12, after being ill for some time. She resided at 163 Palmetto avenue, San Francisco.

Interment was at Cypress Lawn cemetery.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

THERE is definite improvement in the meat situation this week. A better supply of beef is arriving in market and there is also more lamb than there has been for many weeks. Fricassee chickens are also becoming available. Pork continues reasonably plentiful, especially shoulders, knuckles and rough cuts, according to the A & P Food Service for Homemakers.

Nearby gardens are keeping the vegetable stalls full of those things that taste so good on hot summer days—succulent red tomatoes, corn and beans for fresh succotash, golden summer squash and crisp cucumbers.

Peaches are getting more plentiful and now is the time to remember that they make a delicious preserve for winter use. The citrus fruits and berries are still somewhat scarce and therefore high priced.

You Can Still Make Repairs At Your Home

If your home needs repairs, you can make them without authorization, under WPB's Construction Conservation Order L-41, provided they are necessary and do not change the structural design of the property. The work must not exceed $200 or involve the purchase of critical materials.

Pointing out that wartime restrictions on building new houses permits new construction only for war workers in certain areas, Federal Housing Commissioner Abner H. Ferguson recently said: "In view of these necessary restrictions, it is all the more imperative that the present supply of homes be kept in adequate repair, conforming to decent standards of health and sanitation. For the great majority of American families," Ferguson added, "these properties represent the only supply of housing that will be available for the duration of the war."
